

“ ”

Amy Molten, MD,
FAAP - AAP

Chair, Section on
Advances in Therapeutics
& Technology, American
Academy of Pediatrics

This has been a remarkable opportunity to advocate for children's needs at such an early and pivotal moment in this industry. At a time when it would be easy to overlook pediatric care in the rush of innovation, I'm grateful that you've all taken the time to truly listen and understand what our young patients need.